A gift from your friends STAMINA

The 15 pictures in this packet depicting incidents in the life of a Man of Stamina are drawn by Australia's greatest illustrator, Walter Jardine, for YOU. They are free of any cost, being a gift from your friends, the Makers of Stamina Clothes for Men and Boys.

Ask Father or Mother to keep in touch with your favourite Stamina shop for other pictures, as they are prepared. We hope they will be of use to you in your projects on great men and that you will like them. Why not be a Man of Stamina, too!

Your friends,
STAMINA

DAVID LIVINGSTONE (1813-1873)

This Scots boy, when only ten, worked in a cotton spinning mill from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. then at night school from 8 p.m. till 10 p.m., and then at homework until midnight. He became a medical missionary of the London Missionary Society. For 33 years he gave himself to free Africa from slavery. His was a life of eager, selfless service.
